

Infosys - Interview at DELHI - 1 March 2008

Paper Type : General - Interview

Test Date : 1 March 2008

Test Location : DELHI

Hello friends This is Rohit from Mechanical & Automation M.A.I.T. Delhi. Infosys conducted a campus recruitment process at our college on 1st & 2nd of march. Four colleges participated in the campus drive-ours MAIT, GTBIT, GPMCE, & HMR. Around 800 students sit for the test, out of around 250 students from our college 60 were selected in the written test & finally from 60 students 52 were finally selected for the INFOSYS.

In the test initially we have given an application form in which we have to fill up our details with utmost care. After that paper started. There are two sections :

1. Reasoning Ability

2. Verbal Ability

first d reasoning paper was there in which there are 30 questions which are to be done in 40 minutes. dere were 5 questions on syllogism, 1 puzzle, questions based on a paragraph, 5 questions on diagrammatic series etc, etc.

Then verbal paper was given in which there are 40 questions which is to be answered in 35 minutes only. There were questions on sentence correction, grammar, inference from para, 2 long comprehension. TIME MANAGEMENT is most important in this section.

For preparation of the written just follow VERBAL & NON-VERBAL by RS AGGARWAL.

The result was announced after 2-3 hours. Selected students were asked to wait for the interview but due to some reason interview held on next day.

In interview there was only a old-aged person sitting.
